Brent Crouch begins his sixth season at the helm of the Auburn Volleyball program in 2025. Crouch and the Tigers continue to reset the bar for what's possible on the Plains.

Thanks to another strong showing throughout a tough non-conference slate, Auburn returned to the AVCA Top-25, reaching as high as No. 24 after upsetting then-No. 12 Kentucky with a thrilling reverse sweep inside Neville Arena. The historic win marked the second of two top 15 victories on the Plains for Crouch and Co. The Tigers also bested then-No. 15 Florida State in four sets.

Twice, Auburn broke the program attendance record, hosting 3,082 fans inside Neville Arena against Alabama, then 3,940 versus Texas.

Crouch's crew reached numerous noteworthy single-season benchmarks in the rally-scoring era, including reaching the fourth-best hitting percentage in program history (.227), the seventh-most aces (127), fourth-most blocks (255) and second-most blocks per set (2.52).

The 2023 campaign saw Crouch and the Tigers reach new heights once thought improbable at Auburn. A 20-10 overall mark with a 10-8 record in SEC play gave the Tigers a second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Not only did the orange and blue earn a berth to the big dance but the Tigers claimed a seeded spot (No. 7) for the first time. The year marked Auburn's first back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 1991-92.

Crouch's fourth year at the wheel brought a number of signature moments, including Auburn's first win in Gainesville over then-No. 9 Florida to signal the program's first top 10 victory as well. Combined with the win over the Gators, Auburn knocked off South Carolina two days later as sophomore Maddie Scheer hit north of .400 and averaged above 4.0 kills per set across both matches to pick up AVCA National Player of the Week. It was just the second time in school history that a Tiger had collected the honor.

Two more milestones were crossed off during the 2023 season for Crouch. He became the fastest coach in the rally scoring era to 50 wins at Auburn and picked up his 150th career win.

In 2022, Auburn earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in school history and the first since 2010. A first-round victory over host and No. 14 Creighton provided the program with its second postseason win and first triumph over a nationally-ranked opponent since 2017.

The feat came on the heels of a historic season that saw the Tigers begin the season with a record mark of 14-0 and a record start to SEC play at 3-0. The 22 total victories on the season were the most in the 25-point rally-scoring era and the most since 1998. The Tigers also picked up their first win in Columbia, Missouri.

Under Crouch's guidance, Akasha Anderson, Madison Scheer and Kendal Kemp each garnered All-Conference Honors. Anderson and Kemp also picked up AVCA postseason accolades with Anderson grabbing South Region Freshman of the Year and All-Region. Meanwhile, Kemp solidified Honorable Mention. Auburn Volleyball student-athletes also picked up a record 10 SEC weekly awards.

Crouch wasn't left out of the postseason awards season, securing AVCA South Region Coach of the Year, the first such award for the Tiger Volleyball program.

Fans on the Plains saw Auburn become one of the most potent blocking teams in the Southeastern Conference in 2022. Crouch's guidance helped the Tigers break records for most block assists in a single season (520), total blocks (312.0) and tie for the most blocks in a four-set match (17 vs. Troy).

The Orange and Blue wall's foundation was laid by then-freshman Kendal Kemp. The Eagan, Minnesota product shattered single-season records for solo blocks (26), block assists (154), total blocks (180) and blocks per set (1.48).

During his first full season leading the Auburn program in 2021, Crouch's leadership had an immediate effect. The Tigers opened the season winning 17 consecutive sets to tie the program record for most sweeps to begin a season (5), matching the 1974 Auburn team. Crouch led the team to a 13-15 record with a 5-13 mark in the SEC, picking up a season sweep over Alabama, the first Auburn win over Missouri since 1996 and the program's first victory in College State with a win over Texas A&M.

Individually, it was Rebakah Rath and Tatum Shipes who benefited the most from Crouch's development. Shipes led the SEC in blocking and set records in blocks, block assists and blocks per set. Meanwhile, Rath led the SEC in five offensive categories, setting records in kills and kills per set.

Crouch made his Auburn coaching debut against No. 4 Florida on Oct. 21, 2020, to open the shortened fall volleyball schedule. Crouch led the Tigers on the court for eight total matches and his impact on the Plains was noticeable almost immediately, tying the record for most blocks in a four-set with 17 at South Carolina.

Prior to Auburn, Crouch served as the head coach at the University of South California, compiling a 40-25 record. He would lead the Trojans to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in both years in Los Angeles. In 2018, Crouch's Trojans earned the No. 11 overall seed in the Tournament and the No. 21 ranking in the final AVCA Coaches poll of the year.

Along with numerous Pac-12 accolades, Crouch helped Raquel Lazaro, Brooke Botkin and Khalia Lanier to AVCA All-American honors while with the Trojans. Lanier, a two-time All-American, became just the fifth player in Pac-12 history to record 2,000 kills and 1,000 digs in her career.

Before leading the Trojans, Crouch spent four seasons as head coach of the University of Portland. The 2016 West Coast Conference Coach of the Year inherited a winless program and guided the Pilots to its winningest season in 25 years just two seasons later. His 48 victories in his final three years in the Rose City was the best three-season total since 1984-86. He put Portland on the WCC map, earning wins over top-10, top-15 and top-25 opponents while in charge of the Pilots. Crouch coached three All-WCC First Team selections, a WCC All-Freshman Team honoree and three WCC All-Academic First Teamers. He also established Beach Volleyball as a varsity sport at Portland in 2016.

Crouch arrived at Portland after four seasons (2010-13) at Saint Mary's College, where he was an assistant with the indoor program and head coach of the beach team.

Christopher B. Roberts began his appointment as Auburn University's 21st president in May 2022.

President Roberts leads the university's four divisions, including Auburn's main campus with its more than 31,000 students and 5,500 faculty and staff, as well as Auburn University at Montgomery, the Alabama Cooperative Extension System and the Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station, a joint enterprise with Alabama A&M University. Roberts is an accomplished scholar who understands that research and teaching excellence, together with service and public engagement, are at the very heart of the state's R1 land-, sea- and space-grant institution. The R1 designation in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education recognizes Auburn as a top-level research institution. As the university's CEO, Roberts marshals the institution's $1.54 billion annual budget and vast resources, while spearheading the university's strategic vision and advancing the Auburn's ever-growing research enterprise and economic development.

Prior to his presidency, Roberts served as the dean of Auburn's Samuel Ginn College of Engineering from 2012 to 2022. The college has more than 6,000 students and about 400 faculty and staff members. Roberts was a factor in the success of the university's Because This is Auburn — A Campaign for Auburn University, which raised $1.2 billion. Under Roberts' leadership, more than $357 million in donations to the college were made during and since the campaign.

He earned a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Missouri and master's and doctoral degrees in chemical engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He began his career at Auburn in 1994 as an assistant professor in the Department of Chemical Engineering and became department chair in 2003. He also served as the George E. and Dorothy Stafford Uthlaut Professor of Chemical Engineering. He has a strong record of scholarly and academic achievement in nanotechnology and synthetic fuels. Roberts has published close to 150 peer-reviewed journal articles and book chapters in leading chemical engineering, chemistry, materials and related journals and has given over 300 conference presentations, invited seminars and lectures. He has received 45 research grants and contracts from government agencies and corporations, such as the National Science Foundation, U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Department of Defense, the USDA-Agriculture and Food Research Initiative and Boeing.

He has received numerous honors for his accomplishments and contributions to the field of engineering. Some of those recognitions include the University of Notre Dame's Graduate School Distinguished Alumnus Award in 2015; the University of Missouri's Chemical Engineering Academy of Distinguished Alumni in 2014; and the National Organization of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers President's Award for Fostering Minority Engagement in 2012 and the SEC Academic Consortium Faculty Achievement Award in 2012.

He and his wife, Tracy, have two children and enjoy cheering on Auburn's national championship-winning Division I athletics programs.

JOHN COHEN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

John Cohen, who has more than two decades of experience as a coach and administrator in the Southeastern Conference, was named the 16th Director of Athletics at Auburn University on Oct. 31, 2022. Cohen spent the previous 14 years at Mississippi State in various capacities, most recently as the athletic director from 2016-22.

Cohen hit the ground running in his role as Auburn's athletic director as he immediately conducted an extensive search for a new head football coach and ultimately named Hugh Freeze to the role on Nov. 28, 2022, less than a month after Cohen arrived on the Plains.

Throughout Cohen's first eight months at Auburn, 18 of 21 programs advanced to their respective national tournaments, highlighted by equestrian's national runner-up finish, women's tennis' second straight super regional appearance and volleyball's first NCAA Tournament win since 2010. Men's basketball advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four postseasons, and baseball hosted back-to-back regionals for the first time in program history.

Also notably, Cohen played a major role in determining the final details of Plainsman Park's $30 million expansion and renovation project, which began in July 2023.

A nationally respected leader within intercollegiate athletics, Cohen served as chair of the prestigious 10-member NCAA Division I Baseball Committee in 2023, completing a four-year term on the committee.

Cohen's career in college athletics began as a baseball player at Mississippi State before entering the coaching ranks for 25 years. A two-time SEC Coach of the Year, he was named MSU's director of athletics on November 4, 2016, and led the Bulldog program to record-breaking success athletically, academically and in capital project campaigns.

Athletically, Cohen oversaw arguably the greatest era in Bulldog history, highlighted by a 2021 College World Series Championship — the school's first team national title in any sport. A total of five Bulldog programs turned in a program-best season with Cohen at the helm of the department, including softball (2022), baseball (2021), volleyball (2021), soccer (2018) and women's basketball (2017, 2018).

After beginning his stint as the head baseball coach at MSU in July 2008, Cohen's official role in administration began in 2016 when he assumed the role of associate athletic director in addition to head baseball coach.

As the head coach at MSU, Cohen led the Bulldogs to the 2013 College World Series finals, a SEC regular season championship and a SEC Tournament title. In the classroom, 133 of his players were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll, including three straight SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year winners from 2013-15.

As a baseball player for the Bulldogs, Cohen was a key member of the 1989 SEC Champion and 1990 College World Series teams. He graduated from MSU with a degree in English and earned a master's degree in sports management from Missouri.

Prior to becoming the head coach at MSU, Cohen's coaching career included assistant coaching stops at Missouri (1992-97) and Florida (2002-03) and head coaching stops at Northwestern State (1998-2001) and Kentucky (2004-08).

Along with winning 284 games as a head coach at MSU, 138 of Cohen's players were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, and numerous assistants, including Auburn's Butch Thompson, are now or have been SEC head coaches.

Cohen is one of just two individuals who have played, coached and later served as director of athletics for a program participating in the College World Series. He is the only coach in SEC history to win a SEC championship, SEC Tournament title, and advance to the College World Series both as a player and head coach.
